

Where injustice becomes right, resistance becomes a duty and obedience a crime

Sapientiae Christianae, Encyclical Letter (1890) by His Holiness Leo PP. XIII

Johann Wolfgang Goethe

Bertold Brecht

Heinrich Boell

Mahatma Ghandi

German Costitution (Art. 20, Abs. 4): against everyone who intends to abolish this order (art. 3), Germans have the right to resistance (indeed the duty , author's note).